

About Square Pegs:

Square Pegs specialises in providing bespoke business insurance coverage for small businesses with unusual trades and hard-to-place features.

These businesses whom we refer to as “Square Pegs,” have needs that don’t fit into the standard off-the-shelf products available in the market.

Established in August 2019, we have been helping these businesses by offering them tailored insurance solutions through our Square Pegs Portal, a comprehensive extranet platform.

This platform not only allows brokers to easily refer clients but also provides access to underwriters and services.

Square Pegs is part of the Ryan Specialty family. Ryan Specialty was founded in 2010 by Patrick G. Ryan, the widely respected insurance veteran, founder and former Chairman and CEO of Aon Corporation.

Within Ryan Specialty, Square Pegs falls within Ryan Specialty Underwriting Managers International (RSUMI).

RSUMI delivers an independent and entrepreneurial approach to the specialty lines space by providing a unique platform for operational, legal, actuarial, and technical support. RSUMI’s exceptional resources and back-office support allows underwriters to focus on the risk itself, delivering a superior level of service to brokers, agents, and carriers.
